

An Order for Holy Communion in Lent

Welcome, candle is lit.

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

Hymn: The God of Abraham Praise

A Collect for the second Sunday of Lent

Almighty God, by the prayer and discipline of Lent may we enter into the mystery of Christ's sufferings, and by following in his Way come to share in his glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Confession.

All: Lord, have mercy

Lord have mercy;

Christ have mercy

Christ have mercy;

Lord have mercy

Lord have mercy.

All: Amen.

May the God of mercy, who forgives you all your sins through Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness by the power of the Holy Spirit and keep you in eternal life.

All: Amen.

Beatitudes

Blessed are the pure in heart, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Talk

Let us affirm our faith

We believe in Jesus Christ, Son of the one God, Maker and Sustainer of earth, sea and sky,
born of Mary's womb,
faithful to the God of Abraham and Sarah.
Jesus healed the sick, served the poor and proclaimed Heaven on Earth.
condemned by the religious,
crucified by the state- He died.
He transformed even death
and rose to life everlasting.
He blessed the disciples and sent them forth to East and West, South and North.
We commit ourselves to Jesus
to one another as brothers and sisters and to his mission in the world
in the grace of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Our Intercessions, ending with the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Peace .

May the Peace of Christ always be with you!

We hold out our hands to each other with the greeting "Peace be with you!"

Hymn: There's a wideness in God's mercy

Dedication of collection

Lord God, we bring you the ordinary things of life -food and drink and money -and with them we bring ourselves. Take us, and our gifts of money, to do your work in the world. Take this food and drink from our tables and feed us from your table with your love. Accept the praise we offer; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Celebration of Communion

As we gather at this table, we remember that Jesus was born of Mary; he lived our common life on earth; he suffered and died for us; on the third day God raised him from the dead, and he is always present with us through the Holy Spirit.

In his presence, and in the company of all the people of God, past, present and to come, we celebrate the Supper of the Lord.

We hear the narrative of the Institution of the Lord's Supper as it is recorded by St Paul in 1 Corinthians Chapter 11:

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, 'This is my body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me'. In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me'. For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Blessing the bread and wine

Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We offer you thanks, Creator, Saviour, Giver of Life. From the beginning you have made yourself known: the heavens proclaim your glory and the earth sings your praise. In wisdom you made all that is and you bless us with earth's fruitfulness. You are merciful and gracious, and abounding in love. Yet from our first days we have disobeyed your will. Long ago you called to yourself a people to shine as light to guide all nations to your presence. You led them to freedom; you revealed to them your Law and taught them through your prophets. Finally you sent your promised Son, Jesus Christ, who shared our human nature and understood our weakness. Born of Mary, he showed forth your love by word and sign. Therefore with all your people in heaven and on earth we sing the triumphant hymn of your glory:

Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

He sought the unloved and the lost and welcomed all who came to him; he taught us lessons of forgiveness he brought us healing for our sickness, and showed us how to live according to your will. For this he was rejected, for this he endured grief and sorrow, for this he gave himself up to death upon the Cross.

But you broke the power of sin and death and raised him to the heights, that through the blood of his Cross and by the gift of the Holy Spirit everything in earth and heaven might be reconciled to you.

The Lord Jesus on the night he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said: 'This is my body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me.' In the same way he took the cup also after supper, saying: 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.' For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Dying, you destroyed our death.

Rising, you restored our life.

Lord Jesus, come in glory.

Come, Creator God: renew the face of the earth; come, eternal Saviour: remake us in your likeness; come, Holy Spirit, transform these gifts: that Christ may be known to us in the breaking of the bread and that we may be strengthened to serve him in the world. May we on earth be one with all Christ's people, and, when all things are complete, be raised up to be with him, and with all your faithful servants in the heavenly places, the homeland which we seek by faith, and where he reigns in glory, with you, Father, and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever.

Amen

The bread which we break is the communion of the body of Christ.

The cup of blessing which we bless is the communion of the blood of Christ.

We share the bread and wine

Hymn during Communion Lord Jesus Christ

Thanksgiving Prayer

All: Gracious God, may the love which bids us welcome at this table gather all your children into one, in your eternal presence, whole and free at last. Amen.
